

Legal assistance

Balancing the needs of your personal life with your job responsibilities isn't always easy. Add legal issues to the mix, and things can quickly become overwhelming. Your program provides legal assistance to help you answer questions and navigate a wide array of legal concerns.

Access legal information on civil or consumer issues, personal or family matters, and more. Your program includes one free 60-minute consultation per issue, per year on the phone or in person with an attorney.* For services beyond the 60 minutes, you will receive a preferred discount rate of 25% or greater off the hourly fee, based on the types of services you utilize.
