- (2) Please describe your department's selection and hiring procedures and how they help ensure a workforce representative of Sacramento County. (Include, if applicable, hiring interview procedures & policies; internships; education & training opportunities; training & development assignments, etc);

The Assessor's Office adheres to the required County policies and procedures for hiring. Our office requests and receives a certification list of the top three ranks from the Certification unit in the Sacramento County Employment Office. Once the list is received and reviewed, certification letters are sent to eligible candidates to schedule an interview.

Interviews: Interviews may include a writing sample and oral interview with a two or three-member panel. The panel is a combination of Managers and/or Supervisors and when not available request the assistance from Personnel Services. References are checked and once a successful candidate has been chosen, the Division Manager makes a hiring recommendation to the Assistant Assessor or Assessor for approval. Effective April 1, 2020 (per County Policy), offers of employment are conditional on the completion of a background check.

Intern Interviews: Candidates are chosen from applications submitted by students via mail, drop off applications in person, or collegiate job fairs. Upon a vacant position, applications are reviewed and applicants are called to schedule an interview. The most successful candidate(s) name is submitted to the Chief Appraiser for approval.

- (3) Please describe what recruiting and/or informational events your department has participated in and how they help to ensure a workforce representative of Sacramento County. (Include, if applicable, high school or college job fairs, high school or college programs, church events, or community events.

The Assessor's Office recruits from across the greater Sacramento region by participating in the County of Sacramento Career Fair and the California State University, Sacramento and UC Davis Career Fairs.

- (4) Please describe all websites your department advertises its job vacancies to help ensure a workforce representative of Sacramento County.

The Assessor's Office advertises job vacancies through the County of Sacramento, Employment Office jobs website and the California Assessor Association website. Job vacancies are also announced via electronic email distribution to assessor's offices statewide— California Assessor's Association eforum.

- (5) Please describe your department's promotion and career advancement procedures designed to enable all employees to have an equal and fair opportunity to compete for and attain County Promotional opportunities. (Include, if applicable, mentoring, career development activities, etc.)

The Assessor's Office encourages staff to sign up for training classes offered by the County's Department of Personnel Services - Training and Organization Development. Additional certification and educational opportunities are made available to staff through virtual, in-person, and self-study training courses sponsored by the State Board of Equalization, California Assessors' Administrative Service Association, the Appraisal Institute and the International Association of Assessing Officers.

The Assessor's Office provides advance notice of hiring opportunities for vacancies to all staff.

The Assessor's Office encourages and offers internal reassignment and cross training opportunities to staff when open positions become available.

Leadership coaching and training for Supervisors and Managers is provided quarterly.

- (6) Please describe how the County's Equal Employment Opportunity program objectives are incorporated into your department's strategic and operational priorities.

The Assessor's Office adheres to the Civil Service rules and County policies and procedures. The department engages in a continuous effort to attract and retain qualified staff that reflects the demographics of the community. This is accomplished by sending employment and exam notices to various county Human Resource Departments and web notifications through professional organizations. The Assessor's Office also maintains an informative internal and external website. The websites comply with the County accessibility standards.

- (7) Please describe your department's method to ensure its EEO activities and efforts result in service delivery across all sectors of the community (e.g. systems or processes for communication between County agencies and direct contact with community organizations, etc)

The Assessor's Office has addressed service delivery across all section of the community, both internal and external, through the use of the Internet and Intranet. Both sites include current and understandable information about our services in an accessible format. In addition, we provide interpreters upon customers' request.

(8) For complaints reported in Table 4, if there were any with a finding of Violation of County Policy, for each category of complaints (i.e. race, gender, age, etc.) please provide a description of the measures taken to prevent recurrences. Please do not provide specifics regarding the case(s), individual(s) involved, or corrective/disciplinary action taken.

There were no cases that resulted in a Violation of County Policy.
